SCCIOB's Alumni Club Helps To Raise Funds For The Late Cabby Cheng Teck Hock's Family

Singapore, 22 May 2012 –The recent tragic road accident involving ComfortDelgro taxi driver Mr Cheng Teck Hock and Ferrari driver Mr Ma Chi had triggered the emotions of a few new PRC immigrants who are also members of the Singapore Chinese Chamber Institute of Business (SCCIOB) Alumni Club. Feeling sympathetic to the immediate family members of the deceased cabby, they pooled together a sum of S$2000 and approached the Executive Committee members of SCCIOB's Alumni Club wanting to make the donation through the club.

The President of SCCIOB's Alumni Club, Mr Pok Cheng San, felt that it was a good cause and decided to endorse it after getting consent from his fellow Executive Committee members. He said: "The mission of SCCIOB's Alumni Club is to organise meaningful activities/initiatives to benefit the alumni, SCCIOB and society as a whole. It is both touching and encouraging to see that new immigrants members are taking their own initiative by stepping forward to show their care and concern in this incident. "

The Executive Committee members of SCCIOB's Alumni Club are appealing to both alumni and existing students for donations from 21-26 May 2012.

About Singapore Chinese Chamber Institute of Business (SCCIOB) Alumni Club

The SCCIOB Alumni Club is part of SCCIOB, which is an ISO 9001:2008 certified not-for-profit training and education body registered under the Registry of Societies (ROS 0212/1990). Established in 2001, the mission of the Alumni Club is to organise meaningful activities/initiatives to benefit the alumni, SCCIOB and society as a whole. Its objectives are: (1) to establish an extensive network for Club members, unite the different cohorts of Club members and strive for the collective development of the Club; (2) to facilitate mutual exchange of knowledge and information through organising get-together activities such as fellowship sessions and seminars so as to enrich the social lives of both Club members and their families, and (3) to get its Club members to collectively support the goals of SCCIOB.
